

Application for Associate Membership

Membership Eligibility

Individuals or organizations may apply for associate, academic or retired professional member status. These individuals or organizations must fulfill the membership requirements as outlined below.

Associate Membership – Available to individuals or organizations who are not eligible for firm or affiliate membership under the NAMA Bylaws. Entities qualifying for associate membership may provide a service and/or tangible products to issuers of municipal debt (either directly or indirectly) or may be engaged in the provision of credit rating, bond insurance, or other credit enhancement services to public sector clients.

Information and Membership Application

Eligible individuals or companies may complete this application and submit it to NAMA headquarters. Once your membership application is received, it will be reviewed by the Membership Committee and Board of Directors. Upon approval, an invoice for your annual membership dues will be sent. No membership is considered active until membership dues are received. For further information, please contact NAMA headquarters:
